"Dr. Osler wanted to say something sensational." Miss -Fowier began. "when he said that 'a man more than forty years is useless, a man past sixty should be chloroformed. It is not true that the brain at the age of forty slowly but steadily declines at the rate of an ounce in ten years. The theory that the brain stope growing at the age of twenty-five has been disproved. If men were choloformed at sixty the world would have been a great loser in experience and good work.

Diy longevity we well as senescence. They describe a symptom complex of senility which may be normal at a given period of life and which may be premature if occurring at an earlier period. When old age should normally make its appearance does not seem to have been definitely angivered yet. Death has been a premomenon of adaptation which has appeared in the course of the ages in consequence of the evolution of the species. This is the opinion of Daster, who is led to conclude that the experiments of Maupis on the senescence of

In the stove were found one hundred and fifty tiny bottles, each capable of containing about a tablespoon of the drus. All the bottles and the cocaine were taken as evidence and the men escorted to the One Hundred and Fourth Street Police Station. Late this afterneon the men were arraigned before Magistrate Frescht and held for examination.

PHILADELPHIA, May 23.-Presider Taft, who arrived here this foreno will spend the entire day in Philadel phia, leaving at 6.30 P. M. for Camden across the Delaware River from this city, to open his New Jersey campaign for delegates to the Republican National Convention. The President's programme for the day called for an address of welcome to the delegates from thirty nations to the twelfth International Congress o Navigation. After leaving the Metro politan Opera House, where the con-gress is holding its opening session, the resident will be driven to a promit hotel where he will be entertained at luncheon by William L. Gorgas, Grand Master of the Masonic order in Penn sylvania. Most of the afternoon will be pent by the President in the Masoni comple to witness a special Masoni erentony, and after taking dinner at s hotel he will leave for New Jersey.

President Taft, on behalf of the nation, welcomed to this country the delegates from many countries to the twelfth International Congess of Navigation, which began here to-day and will continue about a week. The Presi-dent talked to the delegates of waterway projects and problems in this country, and also spoke about the Pan-ama Canal. "I know you will believe me when I say," the President declared, "that the building of that great canal across the narrowest part of the western continent is an evidence of the desire of the United States to do something for the welfare of the people of the world."

He said that this one great work would be a monument to this nation's

The President was cordially received by the delegates and others invited to
